

INITIATIVES IN RESEARCH: WHO, WHEN AND WHY

NEW EVENT

15 June 2010

Manchester

The purpose of this study day is to update radiographers in research roles, or those who wish to set up research roles, and feedback on national initiatives. It also aims to provide a forum for discussion on the challenges and opportunities of undertaking research in the clinical setting.

PROGRAMME

- 9.00am Registration
- Chairs: Rachel Harris, Professional Officer for Research, SCoR & Dr Heidi Probst, Senior Lecturer, Sheffield Hallam University
- 9.30am Welcome and Opening Remarks
- 9.40am The new SCoR Research Strategy
Rachel Harris, Professional Officer for Research, Society and College of Radiographers
- 10.10am Setting up a research culture in a clinical department
Speaker to be confirmed
- 10.40am The ACORRN Research Radiographer Starter Pack
Julie Davies, Lead Radiographer Radiotherapy Satellite Developments, The Christie NHS Foundation Trust
- 11.10am Coffee
- 11.40am Using the DH researcher job profiles to set up researcher roles
Andy Rogers, Head of Radiation Physics, Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust
- 12.10pm Being a lead research radiographer – national and international implications
Donna Routsis, Lead Research Radiographer, Cambridge University Hospital NHS Foundation Trust
- 12.40pm Open forum
- 12.50pm Lunch
- Chairs: Charlotte Beardmore, Professional Officer for Radiotherapy, SCoR & Donna Routsis, Lead Research Radiographer, Cambridge University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
- 1.50pm Developing and implementing clinical research protocols
Speaker to be confirmed
- 2.20pm The diagnostic research radiographer perspective
Speaker to be confirmed
- 2.50pm Tea
- 3.10pm The national QA trials co-ordinator role
Elizabeth Miles, National Trials QA Team Co-ordinator, Mount Vernon Hospital
- 3.40pm The NCRI workstreams
Dr Heidi Probst, Senior Lecturer, Sheffield Hallam University
- 4.10pm Open forum
- 4.20pm Closing remarks

BOOK ONLINE at <http://events.sor.org> and receive a 5% discount when paying by credit card

Accreditation by cpd now
the College of Radiographers